PRESENTING

THE MONTICOLA

OF NINETEEN FORTY-THREE

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS
OF THE UNIVERSITY OF WEST
VIRGINIA, LOCATED IN
MORGANTOWN, WEST VIRGINIA

Front view of the Administration Building, formerly the University Library, in the center of the picturesque West Virginia campus.

164603

THE OBLIGATIONS OF THIS 1943 "MONTICOLA" TO STUDENTS AND PARENTS ALIKE HAVE BEEN INCREASED MANIFOLD BY A WAR WHICH HAS CALLED WEST VIRGINIA'S SONS FROM THEIR COLLEGE LIFE AND PLACED THEM ON BATTLE LINES ALL OVER THE WORLD. MANY OF THESE, OUR FRIENDS, SHALL NOT RETURN FROM "OVER THERE," BUT THEIR SPIRIT SHALL BE EVER PRESENT BETWEEN THE COVERS OF THEIR COLLEGE ANNUAL—THEIR "MONTICOLA."

TO THE PARENTS WE EXTEND THE SINCERE HOPE THAT THIS "MONTICOLA" WILL AFFORD A GLIMPSE OF THE JOY AND HAPPINESS YOU HAVE MADE POSSIBLE BY GRANTING US THESE YEARS AT W. V. U. AND IN THE EVENT THAT JOHNNY OR BOB OR BILL DOES NOT RETURN, MAY IT PROVE TO BE OF SOME VALUE IN ITS OWN INADEQUATE WAY.

TO THE STUDENTS WE EXTEND A HOPE THAT THIS "MONTICOLA" WILL BE TREASURED NOT JUST AS A BOOK OF PICTURES AND PRINTING, BUT RATHER AS REPRESENTING ONE YEAR OF OUR LIFE. AND IF, AS THE YEARS PASS BY, THIS "MONTICOLA" COMES TO BE A SOURCE OF PLEASANT MEMORIES OF LIFE AND LOVE AT W. V. U. DURING A TIME OF UNCERTAINTY, THEN OUR EFFORTS SHALL NOT HAVE BEEN IN VAIN.

THE FOREWORD

DEDICATION

EMPIRE BUILDER

Raymond Ernest Salvati is a graduate of whom West Virginia University and the Class of 1943 are justly proud. He is now Vice-President and General Manager of the Island Creek Coal Company, one of the largest and most successful corporations of its kind in the United States. He is also Vice-President and General Manager of the Pond Creek Pocahontas Company and Consulting Engineer for the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company.

Mr. Salvati was born on May 14, 1899, at Monongah, West Virginia the son of C. and Elizabeth (Armentrout) Salvati. He was educated in the Monongah public schools, at Fairmont High School and at West Virginia University. During the first World War, he withdrew from his studies and was attached to the field artillery division of the United States Army. When the war ended he returned to college and was graduated in 1922, with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Mining Engineering. He was an outstanding undergraduate, both an athlete and a student. He was a member of the wrestling squad; and his scholarly attainments won for him membership in the honorary engineering societies, Tau Beta Pi and Sigma Gamma Epsilon.

He began his professional career in the humble role of track-layer at the Number Sixteen Mine in the Mud Fork division of the Island Creek Coal Company, and he has remained with the same company up to the present, advancing in some twenty years to one of the most important executive positions in the corporation.

On May 12, 1921, he was married to Miss Pearl Charlotte Williamson; and to that union have been born three children: Raymond Ernest, Junior; Timothy Andrew, and Marianna.

Mr. Salvati's career should inspire all students. His fine personality has gained for him many friends throughout West Virginia and the country at large; and his brilliant professional talents have won him distinction in various fields of endeavor. He is a member of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineering, American Legion and the American Mining Congress. He is a past-president of the West Virginia Coal Mining Institute and the Alumni Association of West Virginia University. At the present, the important services that he renders in three large coal companies constitute a distinguished contribution to the national war effort.

It is with great pleasure that we dedicate this volume to Raymond Ernest Salvati.

Elizabeth Moore Hall, in the heart of the campus, is one of West Virginia's most beautiful buildings. Housing a swimming pool, it is used primarily as the center for women's physical education.

OUR CAMPUS

W. VA.

Interior view of the University Library, rated as one of the most complete reference libraries in the country.

Men's Residence Hall, where now some 500 Army Air Cadets and Engineering Students are quartered.

Entrance to Science Hall.

Exterior view of ivy-covered Science Hall, with Oglebay Hall in the background.

Historic Woodburn Hall, oldest building on the campus.

OUR PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This issue of the "Monticola" presents another chapter in the history of the University. I hope that throughout the years it will bring to your minds remembrances and recollections of your classmates and colleagues, and will recall many happy memories of your University days.

This volume naturally centers our thoughts on the war. Many of the students portrayed have already joined the armed services and are now stationed in many battle zones and Army camps serving their country gloriously. Also depicted in this volume is the part the University is taking in various training programs for soldiers who are being assigned to the campus which again emphasizes the fact that the University has dedicated all of its facilities, buildings and equipment to the war effort.

The editors are to be commended for the splendid way in which they have commemorated the class of 1943. This "Monticola" is unusually attractive, and I am sure it will be highly treasured by all of you.

As I bid a fond farewell to the members of the graduating class, I extend to each of you my very best wishes for your success and happiness.

Sincerely yours,

C. E. LAWALL

Beta Theta Pi fraternity, the first member of the Miami Triad, was founded in 1839 at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. The Beta Psi chapter was established on the West Virginia campus in 1900.

BETA THETA PI

BETA SWEETHEART SONG

Just put your arms around her
And hold her tight like this,
Then tell her that you love her,
Place on her lips a kiss.
And if she starts to murmur,
Or if she starts to sigh,
Just tell her it's the sacred seal
Of Beta Theta Pi.

The Order of Kappa Alpha was founded at Washington and Lee University in 1865. The Alpha Rho chapter was brought on the campus in 1897. Old gold and crimson are the fraternity colors with the crimson rose and magnolia as official flowers.

KAPPA ALPHA SWEETHEART

She has two dreamy eyes of blue,
A smile beyond compare;
Two taunting lips to tease you,
And a wealth of golden hair.
She's the sweetest girl in all the world,
The fairest flower that grows;
She's my sunny Southern Sweetheart,
My Kappa Alpha rose.

KAPPA SIGMA

You're as pretty as a picture,
You're as fair as you can be;
And I love you, oh sincerely,
You're all the world to me.
And if ever I should lose you,
It would break my heart in two,
For I love you, I adore you,
You're my Kappa Sig sweetheart.

February 19, 1852, is the date of founding of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. Jefferson, now Washington and Jefferson College, was the place of founding. West Virginia Alpha was formed in 1890.

PHI KAPPA PSI

OREGON OMEGA

When the pale moon glows o'er the Western skies,
And the silvery clouds roll by,
The weaver of dreams steals close to me,
And weaves for me a song.
This song we sing to a girl divine,
A coed beyond compare,
Her charms are known all over the land,
She's tall and she's wonderfully fair.
To this Phi Psi girl of all our dreams,
We promise to be true,
So we'll gather here to honor her,
As Phi Psi's always do.

HAIL TO THEE, PHI KAPPA SIGMA

Hail to Phi Kappa Sigma,
Sweetheart of my youth.
Crowned by brow with fadeless laurels,
Pledge we now our troth.
Wake the echoes, shout in chorus,
'Til our lungs collapse.
Here's a toast, now drink it hearty,
Hail all Hail, Phi Kap's.
Hail to the Phi Kappa Sigma,
Endless be thy days,
Generations yet uncounted
Still will sing thy praise.
Hail to the Phi Kappa Sigma,
Faithful, loyal friend,
Thine our love and deep devotion
Til our lives shall end.

PHI SIGMA DELTA

PHI SIGMA DELTA SWEETHEART

At night when I m asleep beside my window,
I dream of you, and you awaken me.
Oh wondrous fragrance rises from the garden,
And there a vision fair I seem to see,
And it seems you re the sweetheart of Phi Sigma Delta.
The heavens above are your shelter.
The blue of your eyes is the blue of the skies,
And the moonlight so fair is the glint of your hair.
When you smile all the stars twinkle merrily;
When you frown, there's a cloud in the heavens above.
Oh you wonderful dream girl, may the light ever shine
On that Phi Sigma Delta sweetheart of mine.

DREAM GIRL OF PI K A

In the still of the night, when you turn down the light,
There is the memory of a girl in your mind,
For her sweet little smile makes all life worthwhile.
If you'd look everywhere, you'd find none so sweet
As this dream girl of mine.
She is simply divine, and I'll lay all I have at her feet;
For the love of a girl is like the pore of a pearl
When it comes from the girl of my dreams.

SWEETHEART OF PI LAMBDA PHI

By Harold Kanter '43· Chester Lovett Ex. '44

As night passes by, and I gaze at the sky,
I think of you, my sweet.
I'll never forget that first night that we met,
At a moonlit rendezvous.
You're the girl of my dreams, please never depart.
Wont you fit in my schemes, 'cause you're my sweetheart,
And the pin that you wear,
May it always be there, sweetheart of Pi Lambda Phi.

SWEETHEART OF SIGMA CHI

The girl of my dreams is the sweetest girl
Of all the girls I know.
Each sweet coed, like a rainbow's trail,
Fades in the afterglow.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

WONDERFUL SIG EP GIRL

For all the girls of college years,
There's one that I've loved long.
For me she wears a golden heart,
For her I sing this song.
My Sigma Phi Epsilon sweetheart,
My wonderful Sig Ep girl,
True as the heart that you're wearing.
You set my heart in a whirl.
Violets and roses, my love discloses.
Say that you love me too.
Sigma Phi Epsilon sweetheart,
Wonderful Sig Ep girl.

AND ONLY THE STRONG CAN BE FREE

COL. W. R. ORTON

LT. COL. JAMES M. MORRIS LT. COL. LOUIS W. EGGERS

Established in 1867 at the University's inception, West Virginia offers a four-year course of instruction in military science and tactics. All male students not specifically exempt are required to complete two years of basic military training for graduation. Students who so elect may continue the advanced military course in their third and fourth years, providing their record in basic military justifies.

The year 1943 proved an important one in the University military department. With our nation engaged in World War II, military science naturally assumed more than ordinary significance, and it should be added in passing that our military department more than distinguished itself in the crisis.

On March 19, 1943, a grand total of 196 advanced military students were approved and inducted in the regular U. S. Army at Fort Hayes, Columbus, Ohio. All of these men were then returned to the campus to complete the second semester, at the end of which they went back to the Fort Hayes reception center for regular Army assignments.

West Virginia University has every right to be proud of these men—fighting sons of Uncle Sam —and the military department responsible for their training.

The Student Council of West Virginia University is an important governing body. It is composed of the president and vice-president of the student body, the various class presidents, and the junior and senior man and woman representatives. Its powers are granted by a student constitution and they include the appointment of the student budget commission and the supervision of annual student elections. The budget commission acts in cooperation with the school administration in managing student fiscal affairs.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

Associated Women Students is an organization composed of all women students enrolled in the University. The A. W. S. Council serves as a governing board for the entire association.

Among the varied activities of A. W. S. have been its sponsorship of Open House at Moore Hall every Friday evening and the annual Gold Diggers Ball, at which the women entertain the men. Freshman guidance meetings were also held in order to acquaint the incoming girls with the campus and complications of college life.

THE DAILY ATHENAEUM

In November, 1887, a small bi-weekly magazine appeared on the University campus. The prospects were glowing. By February, however, the editor was saying, "Some students are too poor to take the "Atheneaum" and pay for it. Oh, yes, too poor—but they can eat oysters every night and roll delicious five-centers between their honeyed lips all day long."

In spite of early ups and downs, the little periodical flourished. Today, 56 years later, it is "The Daily Atheneaum," with a circulation of about 3,500 and a regular United Press leased wire service.

"The Daily Atheneaum" is one of the four most important laboratories of the School of Journalism, now in its fourth year as a school. It was first made a department in 1927.

This year "The Atheneaum" made its contribution to keeping up morale by distributing copies of the paper, free of charge, to the soldiers stationed on the campus.

THE 1943

As another issue of the "Monticola" is completed and sent to the printers, the time arrives for recognition of the staff members who worked faithfully all year—even though their efforts may seem unappreciated and destined to be forgotten—to make the yearbook live.

Our sincere thanks go to: Buckner Morris for his experienced advice in guiding the 1943 "Monticola" through many trying situations. Joan Logan for her expert management of the countless business affairs of the book. Compton Pembroke who always was on the spot to do the jobs which had to be done in a hurry. Bob Kirk for his excellent photography in supplying this "Monticola" with better pictures than any previous annual. Connie Marshall for her careful handling of the fraternity and sorority sections. Iris McQuiston for her untiring work in helping to tie together many of the loose ends of producing the book.

Betty Lou Koehler for work well done in editing the class sections. Patti Cummins and Susan Welton for collecting vital information concerning the organizations and campus activities. Eleanor Flavion and Virginia Dowdy for their typing and arranging copy.

And last but not least to Forrest B. Crane, who supervised completion of the annual.

Any credit or praise which this issue may receive and any pleasure that may be derived by the reader is directly attributable to the efforts of these members of the staff. To them we are deeply grateful.

The Mountaineer Week Team is a group of good-will emissaries sponsored each year by Mountain, senior men's honorary. Members of the team visit high schools over the entire state and place before their student bodies the advantages of attending West Virginia University. They serve as a liaison between state high schools and the University.

Tryouts for positions were held in early March under the direction of Dr. Richard Aspinall, coach, and the annual tour was made in April.

MORTAR BOARD

Mortar Board is the honorary organization for senior women. Its members are chosen from among senior girls who have proven themselves to be outstanding in leadership, scholarship, and service to the University.

Laurel Cottage, a cooperative house maintained for the benefit of the university girls, is an important contribution made by Mortar Board to the welfare of the student body. They compile a freshman honor roll for girls who make an average of 2.5 or better their first semester.

This year the group sponsored defense programs for the benefit of the students on campus.

RHODODENDRON

Rhododendron is the junior women's honorary. It was organized to give junior women who had shown promise in scholarship, leadership, and character an opportunity to work together for the benefit of the University.

The outstanding project of the group is the sponsorship of Rhododendron house, a cooperative establishment organized on the campus in order to help University women to live as economically as possible and yet to give them the advantages of group life. This year the organization assumed the leadership of students' work in the National Red Cross.

Fi Batar Cappar is the man's mock honorary for lettermen and campus leaders. Alfa chapter was founded at West Virginia University on March 13, 1914. The members of the new society adopted as their badge the small square of leather, emblematic of the goal of college life, the sheepskin. The fastener is a small piece of brass whose significance is a secret of the organization.

Although organized primarily to promote social activities and entertainment for the members, the Ag Club also undertakes activities which are of educational value. The club sponsors the annual judging contests held for Ag. students. Among other things a weekly radio broadcast affords experience in radio work.

The zenith of the club's activities is the "Ag Costume Dance" which is looked forward to by all University students. Participation in the "All Ag Picnic," attended by students in Home Economics, Forestry, and Agriculture, usually concludes the program for the year.

Among other activities for the year, the club sponsored an intramural swimming meet.

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

It was not until 1914 that the Board of Governors granted the request of the State Pharmaceutical Association that a pharmacy department be established in the School of Medicine; the first course consisted of two years' work and led to the degree, Graduate in Pharmacy. In 1917, three- and four-year courses were added but only the four-year course survived after 1932, meeting the stricter requirements of the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy; in 1936 the Board of Governors ordered that a College of Pharmacy be established as a separate unit of the University.

Kappa Phi, Methodist Girls' Club, was founded at Kansas University, Lawrence, Kansas, in 1916. The club has grown until it now has chapters on 28 campuses.

The aim of this organization is "Every Methodist Woman in the University World of Today, a Leader in the Church Tomorrow."

Kappa Phi is a club whose purpose is to work out a constructive plan for active life in the Methodist Church and the world about them; to broaden college life by combining social and spiritual life; to train for leadership; to develop talents to the fullest capacity; and to form worthwhile friendships.

ALPHA KAPPA PSI

Alpha Kappa Psi, the first and oldest international professional commerce fraternity, was founded on October 5, 1904, at New York University. Its aims are "to further the individual welfare of its members; to foster scientific research in the fields of commerce, accounts and finance; to educate the public to appreciate and demand higher ideals therein; and to promote an advance in institutions of college rank, courses leading to degrees in business administration."

Beta Rho chapter of W. V. U. was just installed during the present school year and its energies have been mainly directed towards the establishment and strengthening of the organization.

Delta Sigma Theta is an organization of men who, appreciating the need for a closer Christian fellowship among men of Methodist preference in colleges and universities and believing that a fraternal organization of young men can do much to stimulate the development of high moral standards of college men, and also believing that college and university men of Methodist preference, if so organized, can have a more effective influence upon the student life and the future leadership of the church, have united themselves for the promotion of these ideals.

Now a prominent medical fraternity, Phi Chi was founded on the West Virginia University campus on December 17, 1933. It was named the Zamnb Xyi chapter in honor of George Crisler, a former member of the medical faculty.

Principal activities of the fraternity include the presentation of speakers to members of the medical student body.

Y. M. C. A.

The basic theme of the Young Men's Christian Association is emphasis on the Christian way of living. Weekly meetings are held and programs planned in an attempt to interest the general student body. The organization helped with the campaign of the World Student Service Fund in April.

The outstanding project of the Y. M. C. A. was the bringing of Dr. E. Stanley Jones to the campus for a series of discussions and convocations.

"Wednesday at Seven" is the popular slogan of the Young Women's Christian Association at West Virginia. It is at this hour each week the "Y" carries on the major part of its varied program. To all women students who believe in its purpose—to make life more meaningful for others as well as for one's self—and who are eager to participate in its activities and support, the Y. W. C. A. is an invitation and opportunity.

With students throughout the country, the members of Y. W. here are the Student Christian Movement and the World Student Christian Federation. Each year they look forward to attending intercollegiate conferences and visiting other campuses, both in and out of the state.

COACH WILLIAM F. (BILL) KERN

whose three-year tenure as head grid master of the Mountaineers came to an end on May 6, 1943, when he accepted a commission in the USNR.

MOUNTAINEER FOOTBALL

Despite four losses—two early and two late in the season—West Virginia's football Mountaineers in 1942 marked up the best record compiled by an Old Gold and Blue eleven since the Sun Bowl championship year of 1937. The final tabulation showed five victories as against four defeats for a difficult nine-game schedule.

It should be added that the Mountaineers' record might have been even better had the squad not been riddled by injuries and manpower losses to the armed services. Never once after the opener with Washington and Lee was Coach Bill Kern able to field his full strength.

After mopping up on the Generals in Charleston, 21-7, the Mountaineers ran into all kinds of trouble in Boston and were overwhelmed by the famed Flying Eagles, 33-0. The following week they rebounded to defeat South Carolina, 13-0, in their home opener, however.

Fordham was the next foe at New York's Polo Grounds and again the Mountaineers fell, 23-14, but only after giving the Rams a great run for their money. Then followed an easy 27-0 win over Waynesburg.

The two high spots came midway in the campaign. Playing before a homecoming crowd of 15,000, the Mountaineers swamped a powerful Penn State team, 24-0, in one of the greatest exhibitions in West Virginia history. This was Penn State's only defeat of the year and the ensuing week-end the Nittany Lions rebounded to beat a crack University of Pennsylvania machine. Everything the Mountaineers did against the Lions was just right, starting with Charley Victor Peelish (61), Mountaineer guard, about to bring down Andrejco (42), Fordham back, in thrilling game at Polo Grounds, New York, won by the Rams, 23-14. John Mercular (71) and Andy Clark (81) try to reach the runner.

Schrader's booming 65-yard punt to the Penn State 3-yard line early in the first quarter. West Virginia scored its first touchdown just six minutes after the kickoff.

Kentucky was the next victim. After battling on even terms for 59 minutes at Lexington, Freshman Dick Leonard connected on a long pass to Sophomore Fred Morecraft for a touchdown that gave West Virginia a memorable 7-0 triumph.

The tables were reversed when Michigan State was met at East Lansing, the Spartans romping off with a 7-0 decision. The season ended for the travel-weary Kernmen in Miami's Orange Bowl, where an exciting duel resulted in a 21-13 win for Miami.

Standout of the season was little Dick McElwee, senior field general, who led the team in ground gaining and scoring for the second straight year. McElwee carried the ball 92 times for net yardage gains of 444 and tallied 38 points on four touchdowns, 11 consecutive conversions and a field goal. McElwee's nearest rival for ground-gaining honors was his halfback running mate, Ike Martin, who climaxed his career with 314 yards. McElwee was elected honorary captain at the close of the season.

The Mountaineers chase Filipowicz, Fordham star, as he races 70 yards for a touchdown early in game. West Virginia came back to bewilder the Rams in the second half, but bowed after a hectic struggle.

Rudy Baric, youthful Mountaineer floor mentor, who served in place of Lieut. Dyke Raese. Baric was the outstanding star of the 1942 national championship team.

1943 BASKETBALL

In the face of tremendous odds, West Virginia came within an eyelash of duplicating its great success of 1942 during the 1943 basketball season. Bidding for a return invitation to Madison Square Garden, where they won the national championship under Dyke Raese the year before, the '43 Mountaineer cagers missed out only by the margin of a single point—a 48-47 loss to Washington & Jefferson late in the season. Having beaten the Mountaineers in an earlier game, 44-42, W. & J. received the tournament bid from this district.

Under the youthful coaching of Rudy Baric, outstanding star of the 1942 quint, the Mountaineers compiled the enviable record of 14 wins and seven losses. Among their victims were Penn State, Fordham, Army, Navy, Temple, Pitt and Duquesne.

Against Pitt, the Mountaineers shattered their all-time scoring record of 80 points and then, just to prove this was no fluke, came back and bettered the new mark against Salem. Joe Walthall, sophomore guard, eclipsed Baric's single season scoring record of 332 points by counting 377 in the 21 games. Walthall also tied the all-time single game scoring record of 32 points and broke Baric's single game Field House mark of 25 with 30 points in the Salem contest.

BOXING

West Virginia's 1943 boxing schedule was curtailed by the cancellation of several matches by opponents who dropped the sport for the duration.

In their opening duel, the Mountaineers were defeated by Army at West Point, 5 1-2 to 2 1-2, and in their only other match, against Michigan State at home, they were beaten 5 to 3.

Wrestling was dropped from the intercollegiate program for the duration due to the absence of Coach Albert Gwynne, now in the Navy.

GOLF

The Mountaineer golf schedule likewise was abbreviated, only three matches being played. Under the guidance of Dr. Richard Aspinall, the West Virginia linksmen wound up with two victories and one defeat.

After taking the measure of Pitt and Carnegie Tech, the Mountaineers "blew" a chance to score a repeat victory over the Tartans and were downed in their final match.

Leading members of the team were Ronnie Moore, Don Hall, John Crow, Jimmy Spencer, Mike Kelly and Frank DePond.

We'll keep things humming while you're fighting up there. We'll see that there's plenty of electricity at every switch at the air field—and plenty of power for the production lines that are pouring out airplanes, tanks, guns, supplies and ships.

That takes a lot of electric power—but we've got what it takes! We have five times as much power as we had in the last war!

More power to you, partners! Once this war's won, we'll provide the power to build a better world!

Books That Never Die . . .

College graduates often fall into the easily understood manner of thinking that their book learning ends with graduation. It requires only a little "brush" with the world to correct that impression. The books of learning are always open. They are never finished. Life packs some pages more completely than others. Altogether, they make the "books that never die"—the books that record our thoughts, our actions, our hopes, our beliefs.

In this period of drama-packed historical significance, perhaps the greatest contribution we may make to the books is that of unselfish service! We, of this company, are doing our best to write a satisfactory record in the field of public service. Your helpful cooperation makes our job more pleasant and more productive of spreading its benefits to the greatest number of people.

"IF I WERE an editor I'd make sure of two things—first, that my editorial experience would not make me lead a dog's life, and second, I'd not be consistently in the dog house with every one including my instructors because of my yearbook activity. My way would be to choose an outfit that does more than put their feet on my desk and pat me on the back. I'd call for Indeco service because it is complete and the best help an editor can get in producing an unusual annual within his budget. Ask the staff on this book if I'm not right."
